Run as few or as many as you like. For each race, you earn points proportional to your pace as a percentage of the winner's pace, with the winner getting 100 points, and, for example, a hypothetical runner at 75% of the winner's pace getting 75 points. Your best six races determine your final standing for the series. In addition, for the "Stonehead" competition, your total points for all races is summed.

For Stone Cat and Pisgah, either distance counts for the Grand Tree. For the MorFun Wapack, the 21 miler is the Grand Tree race. For Savoy this year, it's the 22 mile 2 lap race only. For all other dual-distance races, the longer race is the Grand Tree Race.
